Two New CLE Programs Now Online

Just this week, we now have two new CLE programs online, ready for downloading. You don't have to wait for a DVD. The programs are each one hour and fully approved for one credit hour of Ethics by the North Carolina Bar. The first program includes two interviews - one with Wade Smith and the other with Alan Schneider. Wade is a prominent criminal defense attorney, and Alan represents lawyers before the State Bar. Both talk about ethics and how to stay out of trouble. The second program is a one hour presentation by Bruno DeMolli, Staff Auditor of the Bar, discussing the random audit program of the Bar...an invaluable hour.

New Video on Website of CLE Offerings

There is now a new welcome video for lawyers and paralegals, with a brief description of CLE offerings and programs at the bottom of the home page of my website www.blackburnseminars.com. If you have time, please check it out.

Coming Soon for Lawyers and Paralegals

Shortly, there will be a new three hour DVD and online program worth three hours of Ethics and Professionalism. It is the taped version of a now live program, approved by the Bar, and titled "I was from Venus and my Lawyers were from Mars." It is a very current discussion of the relationship between law firms and clients, told from the perspective of a client who was once the attorney.

Coming Soon for Business

We are developing a new program on Ethics for Business that will be posted soon to the website with a brief video description as well. A good friend of mine recently gave me a book that basically said there is no such thing as business ethics...there is only ethics. It should be interesting.

Coming Soon for South Carolina

By the time of the next Newsletter, we hope to have specific information about two new CLE programs specifically approved for distance (online) learning for South Carolina as well as approval for webcasting.

Meanwhile, here is the calendar for live programs in North Carolina for April, 2010...

In 1993, I turned in my license to practice law in North Carolina, with the result that the Bar subsequently issued a letter of disbarment. As you might imagine, I talk about these matters freely in all my programs.
